EDITORIAL COLUMN...

Dear Readers,

You have in hand Glimpses Vol-III January 2016-December 2017, the newsletter of Dikhowmukh College. It captures the momentous events of the college journey. We have tried our best to make sure this memoir be the true remembrance of our eventful journey in the past two years. It is a compilation of immense effort and creativity put forward by the indomitable spirit of the teaching and learning fraternity. It tries to hold together every aspect of the activities of the glorious institution. Last two years were a splendid time---students bringing laurels in education, sports and cultural domain. The newsletter is a combined effort of the Editorial Board, teaching faculties and the non-teaching staff alike. We apologize for our untoward shortcomings and hope you will cherish the effort. Hope that the dedicated students, teaching and non-teaching staff and the esteemed public will pledge to work for the institution for opening new vistas in its holistic approach along the area of education.
